- (5) Among the personal information of (4), only contact details, name and address and so on, may be used by Hokkaido University Frontier Foundation, Alumni Association of the School of Science, Alumni Association of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences and Alumni Association Elm of Hokkaido University with safety measure.
- (6) Applicants will be informed separately about the handling of personal data in accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Applicants to whom such rules apply (those applying from within the European Economic Area (EEA) member states) should notify the Graduate School Educational Affairs Section, Science and Life Science Administration Department, prior to application.

Admission Policy of Graduate School of Life Science

The Graduate School of Life Science provides students with the training that allows them to acquire an interdisciplinary knowledge of advanced life science, from the level of molecules to organisms. We provide comprehensive education with participation by instructors specialized in fields in the basic and applied life sciences, science, pharmaceutical science, medicine, and agriculture.

▪ Type of Students We Seek

<Division of Life Science>

The educational goal of training in the Division of Life Science is to enable students to comprehensively understand various living phenomena through biomolecular interactions, and to apply their knowledge and techniques in real life. On these principles and aims, we seek:

1. Students having a strong intention to study not only basic life science but also the primary level of applied life science, as in medicine, pharmaceutical science, veterinary medicine, agriculture, fisheries science and biotechnology, and willing to acquire advanced analytical techniques and broad, in-depth knowledge of life science.
2. Students having technical capabilities for advanced scientific research and having a strong intention to become a research professional in private firms, national or local governments.

<Division of Soft Matter>

The Division of Soft Matter seeks students who desire to be capable of integrating material science and a wide range of life science and developing soft matter science, understanding the structure and function of living matter from the viewpoint of material science, designing and constructing advanced soft matter and applying those finding to other fields.

The Division especially seeks following students.

1. Students who wish to learn basic physics, chemistry and biology and to develop analytical and manufactural techniques in the field of soft matter.
2. Students who wish to acquire technical capabilities for advanced scientific research and to have a strong intention to become educators, researchers or research professional in private firms.

▪ What is Expected to be Learned Before Admission

1. Basic academic skills and knowledge in Life Sciences
2. Basic knowledge in each specialized field that is necessary to engage in research in the graduate school

▪ Principle Selection Policy (Multiple-layered Evaluation Method)

【General Category】

By written examination, applicants will be evaluated their levels of “knowledge and skills”, “ability to think/judge/express” and “comprehension.”

By oral examination, applicants will be evaluated their levels of “knowledge and skills”, “ability to think/judge/ express”, “ability to work independently and cooperatively”, “comprehension”, “interest and motivation”, “ability to identify problems” and “ability to solve problems.”

The Graduate School of Life Science will assess applicants on the basis of their entrance examination (written and oral exams) and the application documents (such as a transcript).

【Special Category for International Students】

By oral examination, applicants will be evaluated their levels of “knowledge and skills”, “ability to think/judge/express”, “ability to work independently and cooperatively”, “comprehension”, “interest and motivation”, “ability to identify problems” and “ability to solve problems.”

The Graduate School of Life Science will assess applicants on the basis of their entrance examination and the application documents (such as a transcript).

1. Admission Quota

Division and Course	Admission Quota (Enrollment April 2025)
Division of Life Science Transdisciplinary Life Science Course Biosystems Science Course Biomedical and Pharmaceutical Science Course	About 20 students
Division of Soft Matter	A few students

* Please note that there are some fields in the Biomedical and Pharmaceutical Science Course that will not conduct fall selection. (Refer to the Supervisor List)

2. Eligibility

Applicants must fulfill one of the following criteria.

- (1) Graduated or are expected graduated from a college, prior to admission.
- (2) Received or are expected to receive a bachelor's degree prior to admission to the Graduate School in accordance with Article 104, Clause 7, of the School Education Act (Act No. 26 of 1947).
- (3) Completed or are expected to complete 16 years of school education outside Japan, prior to admission.
- (4) Completed or are expected to complete 16 years of school education of a foreign country through a distance-learning course offered by a school of that country while living in Japan, prior to admission.
- (5) Completed or are expected to complete education at an institution established in Japan that is recognized by the school education system of a foreign country as an equivalent to a university of that country (limited to individuals who are recognized as having completed 16 years of school education in that country) and that is designated by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology (MEXT), prior to admission.
- (6) Received or are expected to receive a degree equivalent to the bachelor's degree from a university or school outside Japan (limited to the university or school which has received evaluation from the person who is authorized by the government of that country or the relevant agencies regarding the overall performance of its education and research activities, or which has been separately designated by MEXT as equivalent to the aforementioned) by completing a program that require three years or more of course work (including the case of completing a distance-learning course offered by a school of that country while living in Japan, and the case of completing a study at the institution recognized by the school education system of that country and designated by MEXT as referred to in (5)).
- (7) Completed or are expected to complete a specialist training course at a vocational school (limited to a course with a period of four years or more and that satisfies the conditions set by the MEXT) that is designated separately by the MEXT after the date set by the MEXT.
- (8) Have been designated by the MEXT (February 7, 1953 Ministry of Education Notification No. 5).
- (9) Have attended a university for three years or more or completed 15 years of school education outside Japan (including the case of completing a distance-learning course offered by a school of that country while living in Japan), and are recognized by the Graduate School of Life Science as having earned the required number of credits with an excellent academic record.
- (10) Are recognized as having an academic aptitude equivalent or superior to the university graduates through the screening for entrance eligibility conducted by the Graduate School of Life Science, and have reached the age of 22 before the time of enrollment in the Graduate School of Life Science.

3. Pre-assessment of Eligibility

Application Period for Pre-assessment: September 10 (Tue.) – September 12 (Thu.), 2024

The Pre-assessment of Eligibility is held prior to the application period for the entrance examination. Applicants who fall under (9) or (10) in “2. Eligible” must go through this by submitting “5. Application Documents” during the period described above. To receive the result, please enclose a self-addressed envelope with an 84-yen stamp affixed.

Applicants who apply for the Pre-assessment of Eligibility should not pay the entrance examination fee at the time of the pre-assessment. They should pay the entrance examination fee in accordance with the notes below. Application documents must be sent by mail and must be received by the deadline.

Notes:

The pre-assessment results will be sent to applicants around Tuesday, September 24, 2024, by mail; once their eligibility has been confirmed by the pre-assessment, applicants must pay the examination fee, in accordance with “7. Entrance Examination Fee,” and submit the payment certificate by Tuesday, October 1, 2024. If the Educational Affairs Section does not receive the payment certificate during the application period, the application will not be accepted and will be regarded as canceled.

Students who will receive the Japanese Government (MEXT) scholarship, the State-Sponsored Scholarship Program of the China Scholarship Council or the Hokkaido University President’s Fellowship (including those who are expected to receive these scholarships) are not required to pay the examination fee.

4. Application Period

Application Period: September 26 (Thu.) – October 1 (Tue.), 2024

Applicants who fall under (1) – (8) in “2. Eligibility”

Submit the completed application documents (see “5. Application Documents”) together with the payment certificate (E) (see “7. Entrance Examination Fee”) during the application period.

Application documents must be sent by mail and must be received by the deadline.

5. Application Documents

* Applicants who fall under (9) or (10) in “2. Eligibility” must submit the following documents during the application period described in “3. Pre-assessment of Eligibility.”

◎ Documents specified by course [Prescribed.]

Division of Life Science (Transdisciplinary Life Science Course) Division of Soft Matter	Research Abstract	Applicants for the Life Science (Transdisciplinary Life Science Course) and Division of Soft Matter must submit an abstract of graduation research in current/previous university or proposed research in Hokkaido University. The abstract should fit in a one-page A4-sized paper (use Form 1) and 400-600 words in English or 800-1200 words in Japanese. Illustrations and/or tables (black and white or colored) may be included in Form 1 and are not counted toward the word limit. Form 1 is available for download from the graduate school webpage. It is highly recommended that applicants create this form by computer and submit it as a hard copy.
Division of Life Science (Biosystems Science Course)	Essays	1. Applicants for the Division of Life Science (Biosystems Science Course,) should submit an essay for each of the following two subjects: (1) Reasons for applying (no fewer than 200 words, nor more than 400 words in Japanese, or no fewer than 100 words, nor more than 200 words in English) (2) Previous study (outline of graduation research or similar research) (no fewer than 800 words, nor more than 1,000 words in Japanese, or no fewer than 400 words, nor more than 500 words in English) 2. Useful information. (1) Essays can be submitted in either English or Japanese. (2) Illustration and tables can be included. (3) The use of a computer word processor is recommended. 3. Form and Format. (1) Use the proscribed form for essays. Please provide necessary information on the prescribed form. It is acceptable to another sheet over the appropriate section of the prescribed form. (2) Using separate sheets for essays. Please provide necessary information on the prescribed form, but attach extra A4-size sheets if necessary (Write the course you wish to apply for and your full name on these sheets.).
Division of Life Science (Biomedical and Pharmaceutical Science Course)	Essays	1. Applicants for the Division of Life Science (Biomedical and Pharmaceutical Science Course) should submit an essay for each of the following two subjects: (1) Reasons for applying (no fewer than 200 words, nor more than 400 words in Japanese, or no fewer than 100 words, nor more than 200 words in English) (2) Outline of previous (graduate) study (no fewer than 800 words, nor more than 1,000 words in Japanese, or no fewer than 400 words, nor more than 500 words in English) 2. 6. Where to Submit

To: Graduate School Educational Affairs Section
Science and Life Science Administration Department
Hokkaido University
Kita-10 Nishi-8, Kita-ku, Sapporo 060-0810, Japan

Application documents must be sent by mail. Please mark “Application for Graduate School Enclosed” in red on the envelope and send it by express registered mail. Applicants must use an envelope prepared separately by you, not the “Self-addressed envelope to receive the admission ticket for the entrance examination” provided in the bound in the Application Guideline.

7. Entrance Examination Fee: 30,000 yen

- (1) Students who will receive the Japanese Government (MEXT) scholarship, the State-Sponsored Scholarship Program of the China Scholarship Council or the Hokkaido University President’s Fellowship (including those who are expected to receive these scholarships) are not required to pay the examination fee.
 - * MEXT scholarship students recommended by universities other than Hokkaido University are required to submit a copy of a letter verifying that they will receive this scholarship.
 - * As a general rule, students who currently enroll in the Integrated Science Program are not required to pay the examination fee.
- (2) Remit the examination fee through a bank or a post office designated by this University, by using the payment slip for the entrance examination fee which is enclosed in the application package, and attach the payment certificate to the appropriate section on the application form.

 - The applicant has not submitted application materials after the application fee was remitted.
 - The application was rejected before screening of the application materials.
 - The applicant paid the examination fee twice by mistake.

8. Screening Method

<Division of Life Science (Transdisciplinary Life Science Course) and Division of Soft Matter>

- ① Oral Examination
In this examination, applicants are required to take two kinds of oral examinations: (A) general questions about the motivation for applying and the research aspiration etc. (B) an explanation of the research outline submitted, and basic knowledge and academic skills related to the research outline.
- ② English Language Proficiency: Based on scores of the external English Language Proficiency Test
- ③ Selection Criteria
The graduate school will decide on successful applicants by a comprehensive assessment of the results of the oral examination, the external English Language Proficiency Test, and the submitted application documents.

* Applicants who apply for the Division of Life Science (Transdisciplinary Life Science Course) and the Division of Soft Matter are exempted from taking the written examination.

<Division of Life Science (Biosystems Science Course)>

- ① Oral Examination
In this examination, applicants are questioned on their specialized scientific knowledge, general scientific knowledge, and research motivation based upon their written essays [“1. Reason for applying” and “2. Previous study”].
- ② English Language Proficiency: Based on scores of the external English Language Proficiency Test
- ③ Selection Criteria
The graduate school will decide on successful applicants by a comprehensive assessment of the results of the oral examination, the external English Language Proficiency Test, and the submitted application documents.

* Oral Examination will be held online using the Internet Meeting System. Details are notified to the applicants individually by email.

<Division of Life Science (Biomedical and Pharmaceutical Science Course)>

① Oral Examination

In this examination, applicants are questioned on their specialized scientific knowledge, general scientific knowledge, and research motivation based upon their written essays [“1. Reason for applying” and “2. Previous study”].

② English Language Proficiency: Based on scores of the external English Language Proficiency Test

9. Examination Date and Venue

Date of Examination: October 24 (Thu.) or October 25 (Fri.), 2024

Venue of Examination: School of Science/Pharmaceutical Sciences, Hokkaido University (Kita-ku, Sapporo) * Except for the Examination conducted online.

* The Graduate School will send applicants detailed information on the entrance examination such as the time of examination, location and how to take the oral examination online.

* It is not allowed to apply to more than one Course/Division.

10. Announcement of Application Results

The examinees' number of successful applicants will be posted on the website of the Graduate School of Life Science, Hokkaido University, around 4:30 PM on Thursday, November 7, 2024. All applicants are notified of the results by mail.

11. Procedures for Enrollment and Payment of Fees*

All successful applicants are notified of the registration procedure at the time of notification of results.

Enrollment Fee: 282,000 yen (estimated).

Tuition Fee: 267,900 yen. for the first semester [Total annual tuition fee = 535,800 yen] (estimated).

* If the tuition fee is revised during the period of your enrollment, the revised fee becomes effective immediately.

12. Important Notice

(1) Make sure to bring your admission ticket on the day of the examination and put it on your desk.

(2) Please consult with the Graduate School Educational Affairs Section by the time of application if special considerations due to illness, injury, physical difficulties, mental disorder, and so on are required for admission.

* Please also consult with them if any special requests are considered for academic.

13. Extending the Period of Registration

It is possible to extend the standard years of study at the Graduate School of Life Science. Read “Extending the Period of Registration” on page 10, and submit an application if you wish to take advantage of this system.

14. Other Information

The admission ticket for the entrance examination will be sent to all applicants around Thursday, October 10, 2024, to all applicants whose application document is accepted.

If you have any questions regarding the application procedure, please contact the following:

Period of Extended Enrollment

1. Aims

When students under special circumstances such as having a job, etc. (including child and nursing care) have asked for an extension to complete the program for a period exceeding the standard years of study (2 years) with a scheduled plan of study, such scheduled study (hereinafter referred to as "Period of Extended Enrollment") may be approved after reviewing their application.

2. Intended Students

Students who fall under one of the criteria below and for that reason, wish to set the study period longer than the standard period to complete an academic (research) course:

- (1) Have a full-time job in a public office or company (excluding those who are exempt from job duty but receive a salary), or are self-employed;
- (2) Have a part-time job that has a significant influence on the full-time academic work;
- (3) Are taking care of children or other family members, which has a significant influence on the full-time academic work; or
- (4) Are visually impaired, hearing impaired, physically handicapped, etc., which are deemed to have a significant influence on the academic work for an extended period of time.

3. Attendance Period

The period approved for the Period of Extended Enrollment is up to 4 years for the master's degree program, and a student can apply for an extension by the year. Students who have been approved for the Period of Extended Enrollment may not continue their study beyond the period of adding two years to the Period of Extended Enrollment.

Students may take a temporary leave of absence from school for up to 2 years, the same as the students under the standard period of study.

4. Application Procedure

(1) Application Period

Please submit complete application documents for the Period of Extended Enrollment and for the entrance examination together.

(2) Required Documents

- ① Application Form for Period of Extended Enrollment (Form 1)
- ② Research Plan Under Period of Extended Enrollment (Form 2)
- ③ Documents to prove that an applicant needs to apply for Period of Extended Enrollment (discretionary format).

(3) Announcement of Application Results

The Graduate School of Life Science reviews each application individually and will notify the results to all the successful applicants of the entrance examination.

5. Reducing or Extending the Period of Extended Enrollment

When regarded as necessary, the Graduate School of Life Science may approve of reducing or extending the Period of Extended Enrollment only once. The period of reducing the Period of Extended Enrollment may not exceed the period of adding one year to the standard period of study (2 years).

6. Annual Tuition Fee

The tuition fee for students approved to study for an extended period will be calculated by multiplying the annual tuition fee by the number of years equivalent to the standard period of study (3 years), then dividing the resulting amount by the number of years approved for extended study. If the revision is made to the annual tuition fee or the changes to the Period of Extended Enrollment are approved, the fee will be calculated accordingly. However, the adjustment will not be made to the tuition fee which has already been paid.

Students who are waiting for the results of their application for the Period of Extended Enrollment must not pay the tuition fee before they receive the official notification of the results.

7. Other Information

For details about the Period of Extended Enrollment and request for application documents, please contact the Graduate School Educational Affairs Section, Science and Life Science Administration Department, Hokkaido University.
